

I am yet one more citizen, taxpayer and voter opposed to the proposal to relax the limitations on media ownership. Monopolization of media and news sources since 1996 has only made for a homogenization of viewpoints, information, and entertainment. The domination of the media by a small handful of the very wealthy can only lead to an erosion of our freedom of speech.